Style of Play.....	1
Principles of Play	3

STYLE OF PLAY: GENERAL

The key elements for coaches and players that define the style of play

MATCH

OFFENSIVE STYLE

All teams will be encouraged to display an offensive style of play based on keeping possession and quick movement of the ball.

QUICK TRANSITIONS AND FINISHING

Speed of play, avoiding over-dribbling, looking for an organized and quick movement of the ball and finishing will be encouraged in all age groups.

POSITION SPECIFIC

A team must be organized defensively, keeping their specific positions in the formation. However, players will look for spaces and movements to support forward when attacking by moving away from their original positions.

FORMATIONS

4-3-3 FORMATION

Teams will use the 4-3-3 formation, either in its 4-2-3-1 or 4-1-2-3 variations. Teams in the advanced stage (U15 onwards) can also use a 4-4-2 formation with a diamond in the middle. This system (4-4-2 diamond) provides more space in the wide areas of the field for the outside backs to move forward and join the attack.

BACK 4

All formations used by the teams in 11-a-side games must keep a back 4 line. The back 4 provides consistency in defense and allows space for the outside backs to move forward when attacking.

9v9

Teams playing 9v9 soccer are strongly encouraged to use the 3-2-3 formation. This formation helps players express the principles of play specified in this document. This system allows for better adaptation to a 4-3-3 formation as the players progress to 11v11.

◀ This is the 4-3-3 formation in its 4-2-3-1 variation. This is a well balanced formation in attack and defense with two holding midfielder players and one attacking midfielder.

STYLE OF PLAY: SPECIFIC

Most relevant points of each of the four key components

TECHNICAL

PASSING & RECEIVING:

Passing the ball on the ground with pace from different distances and receiving the ball while keeping it moving will be encouraged in all age groups.

SHOOTING

Players must develop the ability to shoot from different distances. All players will be encouraged to shoot from any distance during the game.

BALL CONTROL AND TURNING

Players will be encouraged to keep close control of the ball and use different turning techniques to move away from the defender.

TACTICAL

PLAYING OUT FROM THE BACK

All teams must feel comfortable playing the ball from the back through the midfield and from there to the final quarter of the field.

POSSESSION & TRANSITION

All teams must try to keep possession of the ball playing a one-two touch game. Players will be encouraged to support and move, thus creating passing options. Once the possession game is consolidated the team must learn how to transfer the ball in the most efficient way from one area of the field to another.

OFFENSE-DEFENSE QUICK TRANSITION & VICE VERSA

When possession is lost, players must react quickly and apply pressure to regain the ball. Once possession is regained, players will be positioned immediately to counter-attack.

PHYSICAL

SPEED & AGILITY

These qualities will be evident in the game from the early ages.

ENDURANCE

Individual players and teams will train to be resilient to high-intensity action .

STRENGTH & POWER

Strong players develop their speed more quickly, prevent injuries and are more competitive in games.

PSYCHOSOCIAL

RESPECT & DISCIPLINE

Players will adapt to a role on the team and respect teammates, coaches, referees and opponents.

COOPERATION

Each player will be part of a unit, and will cooperate with teammates to achieve the objectives for a given task, session or game, as well as for the entire season.

COMPETITIVENESS

Competitive players will be rewarded for their effort and focus.

PRINCIPLES OF PLAY

For the coach, for the player and for the team

COACHES

1. Possession games are a means to improve both the technique and tactical understanding of the players.
2. Opposition will be encouraged to increase the competitiveness of the players.
3. High-intensity games based on speed and agility. Short but intense working-periods.

PLAYERS

1. 1, 2 or 3 touch maximum: Minimizing the number of touches improves the speed of play.
2. Keep the game simple: Do not force situations, over-dribble or be careless with the ball.
3. Keep the ball on the ground: A ball on the ground is easier to control and can be moved more efficiently by the team.
4. Accuracy and quality of the pass: Passing must be firm and accurate, with the proper weight.
5. First touch: Make a clean, controlled first touch without stopping the ball. Take the touch away from pressure and into free space.
6. Perception and awareness: All players with or without the ball should constantly scan the field.
7. 1v1 situations: Encourage determination to regain control of the ball in defense and keep it simple in attack by taking a touch to the side, at speed, to beat the defender.
8. Individual transition: Players must react quickly when possession change from offense to defense and vice-versa.
9. Shooting: Always keep an eye on the goal. All players are encouraged to shoot.
10. Take risks: Soccer is an error prone sport and mistakes are part of the game and learning process. Players are encouraged to take risks in training session to increase the speed of play.

PRINCIPLES OF PLAY

For the coach, for the player and for the team

TEAM

1. All players attack and all players defend: All players must be involved in the game as a unit.
2. Numerical advantage: Soccer is a game of numbers where we try to create a numerical advantage in attack and avoid being in a numerical disadvantage in defense.
3. Flow of the ball: The ball should flow from inside (of the space) to outside and outside to inside. Balls out wide are more secure and the ball in the middle increases the options of play.
4. Triangle principle and passing options: The player in possession of the ball must receive constant support and have at least two passing options.
5. Speed of play: Quick movement of the ball creates 2v1 situations.
6. Movement off the ball: Find the best available space to create passing options for the player in possession of the ball.
7. Pressure as a unit: Organized pressure forces the opponents to commit errors.
8. Transition: Improve transition by reducing the number of passes needed to arrive at the target area or the opponent's goal.
9. Direction of the game: The game flows in two directions. Keep the essence of the game in the majority of your practices.
10. Take initiative during the game: Team breakdowns will occur. The team must be capable of adapting to new situations and imposing its own style of play during the game.

COACHING PHILOSOPHY

The coaching method is based upon the following key components

THE CORE

THE MATCH

The objective of the training session is to prepare players for competition. The game shows the tactical, technical, physical and psychosocial development of the player.

FOUR COMPLEMENTARY COMPONENTS

TACTICAL

This component helps the player fit into the team. Our aim is to create clever players, capable of adapting to the constantly changing circumstances of the game.

TECHNICAL

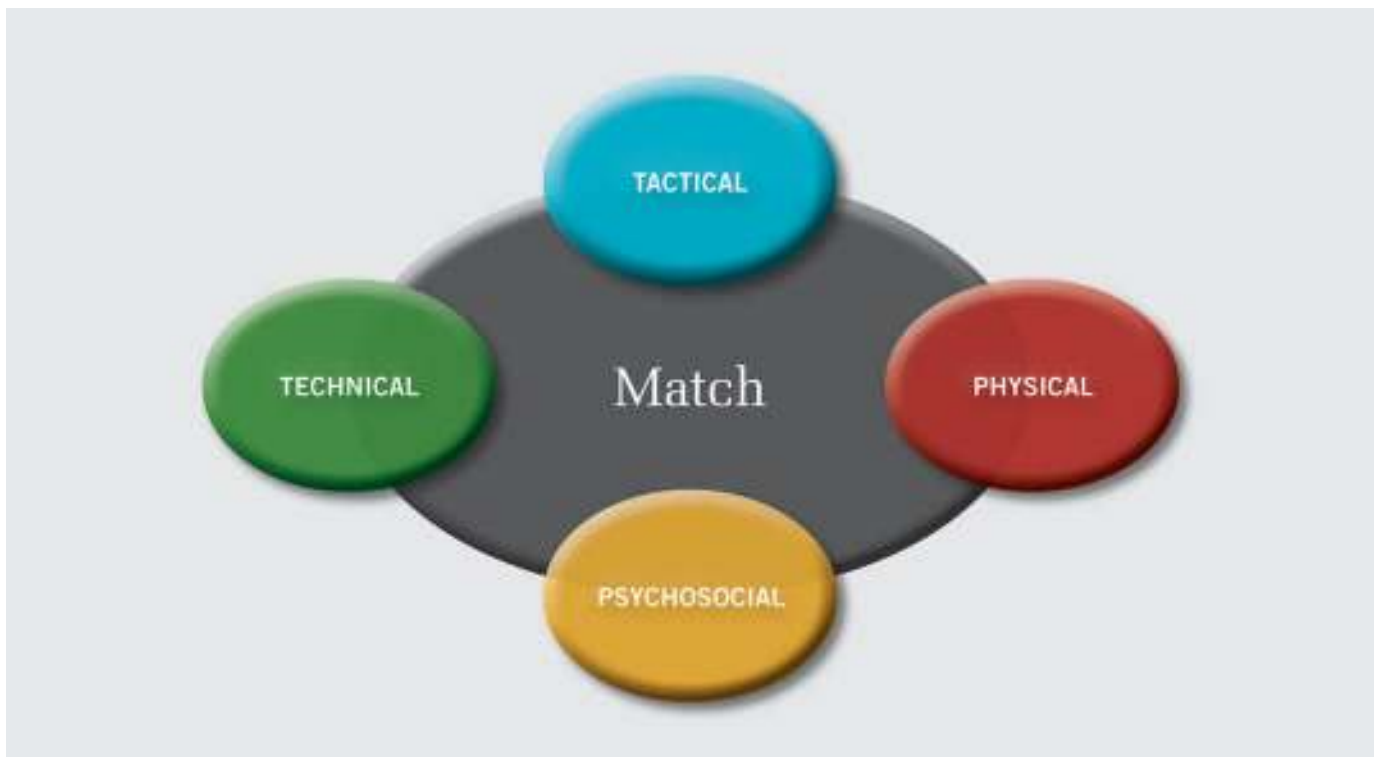

All players in the team have to be individually competent and proficient in the most important skills for each position. For example, a central midfield player will need different techniques and expertise as compared to an outside back.

PHYSICAL

Strong and resilient players will provide a significant advantage to the team. A tired player will struggle to think properly and is prone to commit more errors.

PSYCHOSOCIAL

The human being is often affected by his/her emotions. We will train the players to use these emotions to their advantage and turn them into strengths and not weaknesses.

GENERAL TERMINOLOGY

Definitions for soccer-specific terminology

Tactic: Individual or collective actions performed by a player or group of players to take advantage of an opponent, group of opponents or a team.

Explanation: The tactics are the tools to develop the strategy.

Example: Quick transition of the ball from one side of the field to the other.

Strategy: A general concept or idea agreed upon by the team at the beginning of the game with the intention to beat the opponents.

Explanation: The strategy relates to the formation and/or system used by the team.

Example: Defensive strategy - three strikers pressure up high and midfielders close down the opponents in central areas to prevent them from turning and attempt to regain the ball in the attacking half.

Formation: The shape of the team and distribution of the players on the field at the beginning of the game.

Explanation: This is usually expressed in three numbers identifying the number of players in the defensive, midfield and attacking lines.

Example: 4-3-3 – 4 defenders, 3 midfielders and 3 strikers.

System: A formation with specifications in the shape and/or roles for one or more players.

Explanation: The system combines the formation and strategy.

Example: 4-4-2 with diamond in midfield and outside backs moving up into wide areas.

PHYSICAL TERMINOLOGY

Aspects to increase performance

- 1. Strength: The capacity to perform a sudden muscular action of high intensity against resistance.

STRENGTH ENDURANCE

The capacity to maintain a sudden muscular activity of high intensity against resistance throughout a long or a maximal period of time.

EXPLOSIVE STRENGTH

The capacity to perform a sudden muscular action of high intensity against resistance in the shortest period of time possible.

MAXIMAL STRENGTH

The capacity to perform the highest muscular action in a short period of time against resistance.

- 2. Endurance: The capacity to maintain a physical activity of certain intensity during a period of time.

AEROBIC CAPACITY

The ability to perform a predominantly aerobic physical activity.

Explanation: This is an exercise in the presence of oxygen which does not cause significant disruption in the body (i.e. there is a balance between the energy production and energy spent in the body).

Example: Depending on the age and the level of the player this would be a constant and dynamic activity for periods of 4 to 6 minutes and up to 85% of maximal heart rate.

AEROBIC POWER

Capacity to combine the aerobic and anaerobic energy systems for a long period of time with the purpose of obtaining the best performance in dynamic physical activity.

Explanation: This is an exercise in the presence of oxygen but in need of other sources of energy that cause disruption and physical debt in the body. The balance between the energy production and energy spent in the body is being taken to the limit.

Example: Depending on the age and the level of the player this would be a constant and dynamic activity for periods of 2 to 3 minutes and above 85% of maximal heart rate.

ANAEROBIC LACTIC – GLYCOLYTIC POWER

Dynamic high intensity physical activity produces high concentrations of lactic acid during short periods of time.

Explanation: When the intensity of exercise is too high and relatively sustained, the energy systems which use oxygen (aerobic) cannot provide all the energy needed quickly enough. The body requires other energy systems, which creates a debt in the body. This energetic system (anaerobic alactic) produces a substance called lactic acid, which in high quantities, affects and limits the performance of the body during the physical activity. At some point, the intensity of the physical activity has to decrease in order to recycle the lactic acid and to allow high-intensity performance. For this reason, players' tolerance to the production of high -concentrations of lactic acid in the body is important.

PHYSICAL TERMINOLOGY

Aspects to increase performance

Example: Depending on the age and level of the player, this kind of exercise would involve constant and dynamic activity at maximal intensity for periods of 45 seconds.

ANAEROBIC ALACTIC – ALACTIC POWER

Dynamic, high-intensity and brief physical activity using the energy source stored in the muscles.

Explanation: If the intensity of the exercise is too high and the demands for energy too immediate for the body to produce the quantity of energy needed, the activity of the muscles will use the stored energy source. In this case, energy is coming from phosphocreatine (Pc) and adenosin triphosphate (ATP). This stored energy source will provide enough time for the body to start obtaining energy from other elaborated energy systems. This anaerobic alactic energy source is limited.

Example: Depending on the age and level of the player, this would be constant and dynamic activity at maximal intensity for periods of 10 seconds.

- 3. Speed: The capacity to execute a movement or cover a distance in the shortest time possible.

REACTION

The quickest possible processing of information and neuromuscular transmission with the purpose of making a movement.

ACCELERATION

The sudden increase of speed from a standing position or slow pace to a run.

MAXIMAL SPEED

The fastest movement possible of the body or part of the body.

SPEED ENDURANCE

The maintaining of the highest possible speed during the longest possible period of time.

ACYCLIC SPEED

The constant change of speed with or without the ball at high pace depending on external conditions.

- 4. Flexibility: The capacity of the body or part of the body to combine muscle elasticity and joint mobility to reach the widest range of movement.

MOBILITY

The capacity of the joints to perform wide movements.

- 5. Coordination: The capacity to articulate efficient movements between different body parts.

BALANCE

The capacity to assess and coordinate internal and external factors affecting the body status to stay in control of the body's movement and/or position.

PHYSICAL TERMINOLOGY

Aspects to increase performance

6. Agility: The constant change of speed with or without the ball at high pace, depending on external conditions.
7. Basic motor skills (BMS): The essential movements of the body in adapting to the external environment (e.g. walking, running, jumping, diving or changing direction). Other important BMS related to the body with external elements are catching, throwing, hitting or kicking.
8. Perception: The visual efficiency to identify and assess external situations.

AWARENESS

The combination of various senses to identify and assess external situations.

COACHING STYLE

Below are general coaching guidelines and preparation for our coaches

METHODOLOGY

COMPETITIVE: All games will have a competitive component, rewarding the winning team and creating a healthy competitive spirit and training environment.

BALL: All practices must be done with the ball whenever possible.

FUN: The coach must use his/her creativity to design fun practices which apply to soccer, especially for younger players.

ORGANIZATION

PREPARATION: All coaches will prepare and review a session plan before the session. A record of all session plans will be kept with the coaching department.

DURING THE SESSION: Do not stop the session too often. Players must learn to find solutions without constant coaching. Give clear and accurate coaching points and quickly restart the practice.

EVALUATION: Take a few minutes after the session to review and note what worked well and what needs improvement.

COACHING THE PLAYER

BALL CONTROL AND PASSING: The technique of the player is based upon ball control as well as accuracy of the pass. The quality and direction of the first touch is of paramount importance.

PERCEPTION AND AWARENESS: Emphasize keeping the head up and scanning the field at all times. Perception and awareness are major parts of the game.

SPEED AND REACTION: All practices will incorporate speed in perception, decision making and execution. Increasing individual speed will increase the speed of the whole team.

COACHING THE TEAM

SPACE AND MOVEMENT: Creating space in order to receive the ball and offer passing options to the player in possession is essential. Demonstrate to players how to move at the right time.

ATTACK – DEFENSE: All players attack and defend. Give specific roles and explain the appropriate movements for your players individually and as a team-unit.

SPEED OF PLAY: The main objective of the team will be to play at maximum speed. Reducing the space and number of touches on the ball increases the speed of play.

COACHING ORGANIZATION

Aspects to prepare training sessions

Below we explain the guidelines about coaching-style and how it should look to the coach during the session:

PREPARATION

SESSION PLAN: In order to be efficient during training sessions, all coaches must prepare a session plan. Regardless of a coach's experience, preparation prior to training is essential to a dynamic and rewarding training session.

TIME: The coach has to plan and manage time during the session. For effective management, the coach should indicate the time spent on each exercise in the session plan.

KEY POINTS: Each exercise should have 4 or 5 key, coaching-points gathered in the session plan.

BEFORE THE SESSION

EQUIPMENT: Have all the necessary materials prepared. Goals, balls, multicolor cones and 3 or 4 sets of pinnies should be enough to prepare your session.

INITIAL SET UP: Make sure that you have the spaces organized and plan for a smooth transition from one exercise to another. Minimize the number of cones that you have to pick up or reset.

REVIEW: Take a few minutes just before the training session to review the session plan and the coaching points.

DURING THE SESSION

POSITION DURING THE PRACTICE: Coaches should occupy a central but sideline position during practice which allows a clear, general vision of training and simultaneously permits the observation of small details.

FLEXIBLE: A good coach must be capable of adapting the initial plan of the session to the time available, characteristics of the players and time required for players to learn a given task.

COACHING POINTS: Coaches should cover necessary coaching-points in the session plan depending on players' performance and adaptation.

AFTER THE SESSION

DISCUSSION WITH THE PLAYERS: Do not underestimate the value and impact of a positive comment or individual feedback to a player after the training session.

REVIEW YOUR SESSION PLAN: Review the session plan at the end of the training session and note what worked well and what needs to improve.

EVALUATE YOURSELF: Do not be ashamed to ask for constructive feedback and the opinion of your colleagues in relation to your coaching management and structure of the session.

CREATING AN APPROPRIATE ENVIRONMENT

The four major components to create an appropriate environment

All four components below are interrelated with the four key points in soccer. Developing these components in the training sessions will be essential to create an appropriate environment in order to develop top soccer players.

GAME UNDERSTANDING

This component is related to the TACTICAL side of the game. Developing vision and game awareness is crucial from an early age. In soccer, one action is never repeated in exactly the same way and game situations change constantly. Collective practices and experience in different game situations aids the player by improving his/her knowledge of the game.

QUALITY

This component is related to the TECHNICAL side of the game. A quality touch of the ball is indispensable to the tactical side of game-efficiency. Technique in soccer allows for great diversity; therefore repeating specific technical actions in a game context provides the player with a wide range of technical movements. Coaches will insist on a clean touch on the ball as well as quality technique.

INTENSITY

This component is related to the PHYSICAL side of the game. Practices must be performed at game intensity. Short working periods of high-intensity develops the technical quality and the quick, tactical decisions required in the game. Reproducing game intensity during training sessions is essential to the improvement of the different types of speed and endurance.

COMPETITIVENESS

This component is related to the PSYCHOSOCIAL part of the game. Opposed and high-intensity practices are essential in the development of high-quality and competitive players. Developing committed and competitive players from an early age is an indispensable aspect in the creation of successful teams.

INTRODUCTION

Organization of player development by age and stage

Children do not learn in the same way as adults, especially when the learning process involves both intellectual and physical activity.

Age conditions the way a person perceives and interacts with the world and with others.

In any learning process, age is the key component in selecting appropriate content and methodology. Soccer is no different. For this reason we must not train 6 year old players the same way as 13 years old players. Training sessions must be adapted to the age of the players. Taking into consideration the characteristics of human and player development, we have structured the curriculum into four age groups. The first two age groups are:

1. INITIAL STAGE – 5 TO 8 YEARS OLD

At this age children do not have the same capacity as adults to analyze the environment. They explore and have an egocentric conception of the world. Children are still gathering the experience necessary to interact with their surroundings and with others. Also, empathy and the capacity to consider the thoughts and feelings of others is very low. In order to help children build their own experience, many exercises will be individual (e.g. each player will have a ball). The tactical component of the game will be reduced to small-sided games with basic explanations about space distribution. Training sessions will be treated more as physical education than specifically as soccer training.

2. BASIC STAGE – 9 TO 12 YEARS OLD

At this stage, the structure (but not the content) of the training sessions will be similar to that of older players. The main component of the training session will be technical. It is sensible at this age to develop technique and basic tactical understanding. Children's capacity to solve problems increases significantly. Therefore players will begin working on basic and dynamic tactical scenarios. At this stage, players are pre-pubescent and have important physical limitations in terms of strength and endurance.

3. INTERMEDIATE STAGE – 13 AND 14 YEARS OLD

Players at this age develop a good understanding of the game. However, these players are limited by their physical size and the significant changes, which arise with puberty. Safety should be the number one priority for the coach. The coach must be cautious to avoid overtraining should focus more on tactical and technical elements of the game and less on the physical aspects. Tactical training plays an important role at this age.

4. ADVANCED STAGE – 15 TO 18 YEARS OLD

Players at this age have completed most of their physical and mental development. All components of training can be combined and organized with the purpose of developing the highest potential of the player. The strength of the muscles helps to develop technique at high speed and this speed helps the player to react faster to tactical situations. This stage is crucial for combining all the components of soccer in order to increase the players' soccer knowledge.

These are some of the facts in terms of human development adapted to soccer. In this document these facts are used to develop the most appropriate training methodology for each age group.

PRINCIPLES OF AGE APPROPRIATE DEVELOPMENT

Training characteristics based on human development

STAGES	AGE GROUPS	CHARACTERISTICS
INITIAL	U6	Very young players from 5 to 8 years of age love to play. Therefore, all practices should be based on fun games.
	U7	Players must spend the maximum time possible in contact with the ball and experiment by themselves. For the first time the player has to build a relationship with other players. Give different responsibilities to the players in order to develop a sense of team.
	U8	Basic motor skills like walking, running or jumping have to be combined with ball handling and ball control.
BASIC	U9	Pre-pubescent players from age 9 to 12 years have a special ability to learn. Therefore, this is the right age to work on specific soccer techniques and skills. Developing good technique is essential at this age.
	U10	1v1 and 2v1 attacking and defending situations are important to develop individual skills as well as the passing techniques to develop the necessary team game.
	U11	Use small-sided games to develop basic attacking and defensive principles. Other important aspects of tactical training are possession, combination play, transition and finishing in the final third, as well as zonal defending. Players will rotate in two or three different positions to avoid early specialization.
	U12	Speed, coordination, balance and agility are the main physical aspects to improve at this stage.
INTERMEDIATE	U13	At this stage, training sessions are orientated more toward tactics and the player will practice in bigger spaces. Players must practice all different types of techniques at this stage.
	U14	Strength and endurance should be part of the fitness training. Coaching methods have to consider and preserve players' health since they will be experiencing many changes due to puberty at this stage. Warm-ups and cool downs are essential as is dynamic flexibility. Players must develop discipline at this stage by following the instructions of the coach both during and outside training sessions.

PRINCIPLES OF AGE APPROPRIATE DEVELOPMENT

Training characteristics based on human development

STAGES	AGE GROUPS	CHARACTERISTICS
ADVANCED	U15	Tactical training and small-sided games are an essential part of the training at this stage. Attacking and defending principles must be part of all games. Important aspects of the tactical training are speed of play, quick transition, counter attacking and finishing in the final third, as well as pressing.
	U16	Technique will focus on speed and accuracy. Passing and finishing are two of the main techniques emphasized at this stage. Part of the technical training will be position-specific (e.g. defender: passing, center midfield players: receiving to turn and strikers: finishing).
	U17	The physical aspect of the game is key at this stage: endurance, strength and speed will be part of the weekly training routine.
	U18	Players should be expected to show commitment to the team, concentration in training sessions and competitiveness during the game.
SPECIFIC	U19	All tactical aspects of the game must be covered. Strategy and set pieces are now a major part of the training sessions.
	U20	The technical and physical work is based on explosive actions.
PERFORMANCE	SENIOR	Training methods will be adapted to the type of players and level of competition.

INTRODUCTION

Training plan organization

The coach's work starts before arriving at the soccer field.

Planning the session correctly, for the week and the season, will help the coach identify the team's needs and deliver a more efficient training session. Properly preparing a training session gives the coach greater confidence with the players and a better understanding of how to adapt the exercises to the team's and players' needs on the field. A good coach is a good planner.

Using the age appropriate season-plan provided in the coaching guides, the coach will have the key tools to organize and plan the training session for the team. The numbers 1 to 5 will designate the importance of different technical, tactical, physical and psychosocial aspects of the game. For example, a number 5 in passing and receiving for the U14 age group means that this element is extremely important at that age.

Two teams of the same age group will have different ability levels and understanding of the game. In other words, even teams of the same age have different needs. For this reason, the exercises should be delivered according to a particular age group. This document contains the information necessary to create your own plan according to your team.

These are the steps to follow when preparing a plan:

SEASON PLAN

This section will help the coach to quickly organize the season into competitive periods, transition periods (in between competitive periods) and off-season periods in the case of the older age groups. For younger groups, it will be even more essential to have a broader vision of the objectives, content, distribution and means of use during the season.

MACROCYCLE OR 12-WEEK PROGRAM CYCLE

The coach can use this plan as it is presented in this document. This 12-week distribution of content ensures that all key elements in the curriculum are covered for each stage and age group. It is organized in two-week periods to give the player enough time to show significant improvement in the specific categories. Please note, this content distribution follows an appropriate order for developing the style and principles of play.

MICROCYCLE OR WEEK PROGRAM

This section helps the coach organize weekly training sessions. Each week has a main technical, tactical and physical objective specified in the macrocycle. However, each team is different and has its own learning dynamic. Therefore, the weekly plan is flexible. The team will evolve week after week and the coach must continually identify the team's needs.

SESSION

Sessions are the last step of the planning process. In this section the coach can see what sessions look-like for the different stages. Each session is structured the same way, including the following parts: warm-up, main part and scrimmage. The main part contains technical, tactical and physical exercises. The coach can use the exercises in the library to select appropriate drills for the team and create his/her own training sessions.

Some of the specific organization for the season applies only to the intermediate and advanced stages. The advanced and intermediate stages may change training organization throughout the season in order to be more efficient in competition. The initial and basic stages emphasize development consistency of session structure, in order to consolidate the basics of soccer.

PRINCIPLES OF SEASONAL PLANNING FOR DEVELOPMENT

Here is the organization for the season based on three 12-week cyclic periods. Each one of these 12-week periods is called a macrocycle. This 12-week period will be similar in structure in all three stages of the season. As coach, you can adapt and modify the length of the macrocycle depending on the needs of your team and season.

Example structure for a season with three different periods for intermediate and advanced stages:

1. Competitive: Period when the team is training and playing games regularly.
2. Transition: Period when the team is training but not playing regularly.
3. Off-season: Period when the team is not training or playing regularly.

PERIODS	OFF	COMPETITIVE I			TRANSITION			COMPETITIVE II			OFF SEASON
		1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
MONTHS	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec	Jan	Feb	March	April	May	June	July

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO STRUCTURE THE SEASON FOR THE DIFFERENT AGE GROUPS? (THE NEXT FOUR POINTS APPLY ONLY TO INTERMEDIATE AND ADVANCED STAGES)

1. Players follow a repetitive 12-week program. The 12-week structure is repeated three times in the season with common objectives but different content according to the moment of the season.
2. The season is organized in 12-weeks periods so that during this time the player will build his game-understanding as well as develop the soccer-specific fitness necessary to perform in competition.
3. Characteristics for the different periods (e.g. Competitive I, Transition and Competitive II) are explained later in this document.
4. This organization gives structure to the content and make sure coaches not only cover all key elements of the game, but do so according to the age of the players. We know that in human development, a 6 year old player does not perceive the game as a 12 year old or as a 17 year old does.

IMPORTANT NOTES FOR THE TABLE ON THE NEXT PAGE

1. The technical, tactical and physical objectives will focus coaches' and players' attention on that particular objective for a two-week period. However, it does not mean that only that particular objective is covered in all training sessions. Instead, the specific objective will be covered in at least one training session during the two-week period. This ensures that the essential content for that specific age-group will be covered.
2. The coach will also cover other aspects of the game that the team needs to improve.
3. The arrow indicates the main objective for the two-week period.
4. Please, check the arrows in the content sheet by age in order to cover other specific, age-appropriate content.

Main objectives for the 12-week program in the different stages are indicated in the sample below. The arrow indicates the main objective in that stage:

WEEKLY PLAN

Below applies only to intermediate and advanced stages

The game is the most demanding practice of the player's week. The intensity will decrease at the beginning of the week, increase closer to the level of game intensity at the middle of the week and then decrease again at the end of the week to provide the body enough time to recover for the game. These principles apply mainly to intermediate and advanced stage players.

The weekly plan is organized as indicated in the graphic:

1. TACTICAL

At the beginning of the week, the coach will use simple practices which increase in complexity throughout the week.

2. TECHNICAL

At the beginning of the week, the coach will use more unopposed practices focused on the quality of execution. By the end of the week, the coach will use opposed practices to increase speed, competitiveness and awareness.

3. PHYSICAL

At the beginning of the week, the physical work will focus on strength and injury prevention. By the middle of the week, the workload will increase using endurance training methods; and at the end of the week the training will focus on speed.

STRUCTURE OF THE TRAINING SESSION

For the initial, basic, intermediate and advanced stages

Sessions for all age groups cover tactical, technical, physical and psychosocial objectives. The exception to this are the sessions for players in the initial stage, which cover only technical, physical and psychosocial objectives because of the age and developmental characteristics of this group.

The session is organized into three blocks: Warm-up, main part (which includes technical, physical and tactical exercises) and scrimmage or free play. Training sessions follow the structure indicated below. However, the three parts of the session can be shorter or longer in duration and the sections within the main part can be interchanged depending on the type of exercise. Please note that any of the explanations below are recommendations and not prescriptions.

		Tactical (20-30 min)	Use the full size or specific areas of the field to develop tactical understanding of the game. Keep it realistic and related to the game.
	SCRIMMAGE (25-30 min)		Free game including the concepts worked in the session

STRUCTURE OF THE TRAINING SESSION

Flexible components

Aspects that are flexible and help organize the practice:

SPACE	Keep the organization of the space simple. The initial set up, with small changes, should be maintained throughout the whole session. Resetting cones during a session can easily disturb the flow of training. Attention during the session should be focussed on making the coaching points.
TIME	Time is flexible. Let the practice flow and make the coaching points at the right time, using breaks to give feedback to the group.
INTENSITY	Use short periods of time at high-intensity and utilize resting periods to explain the practices or make coaching points.
RULES	Use different rules to adapt the practices to the characteristics of the players and make the exercises age-appropriate.
NUMBER OF PLAYERS	Practice should progress from smaller to bigger groups of players. Use support players to create superiority in numbers and to make the exercises easier for the attackers.

GAME

PHYSICAL

Practice 1: End zone with support players

PHYSICAL/PHYSIOLOGICAL EFFECT: Increase efficiency by combining aerobic and anaerobic systems to perform at very high-intensity.

AREAS		STRUCTURE
Technical	Aerobic power	Space	60x40 yards
Tactical	Transition	Time	20 min
Physical	Passing	Age Recommended	U15+
Psychosocial	Cooperation	Difficulty (1 to 5)	4

ORGANIZATION
Players	18+
Equipment	12 cones and 8 balls
Description	6v6+6 game. Score by completing five consecutive passes in one half. Once a team completes five passes, transfer the ball to the other half. The two players in the end zone join the attacking team. Variation 1: Limit the number of touches for the team in possession Variation 2: Teams must complete a pass to support player on the side before transferring the ball to the other half.
Justification	Due to the intensity of the exercise (around 90% HRmax), this type of exercise is designed to reach VO2max as fast as possible. Once the VO2max is reached the body will combine aerobic and anaerobic systems to tolerate high-intensity exercise. The player will be focused on the game and will not notice the physical work.

WORKLOAD

1. 3 min
2. Sets: 4
3. Rest between sets: 1 min

ATTACKING PRINCIPLES

3. Passing options – decision-making
4. Width and depth
5. Creating 2v1 situations

 Can include goalkeepers

QUANTIFICATION

Identifying the needs of the team is essential in order to quantify the work during the training sessions and make a proper analysis of the game.

In this section there are samples presented to quantify the number of times that one topic or subject is covered in the training sessions during a month and during the season. As coaches, we can compare that number with the number specified in the season plan for that particular age group.

For example, a 5 in the season plan for a U14 team in the passing and receiving category means that the team must have a high amount of passing and receiving practices during the month.

4 SPREADSHEETS ARE PRESENTED IN THIS SECTION

1. Technical
2. Tactical
3. Physical
4. Psychosocial

Each one of the spreadsheets records the number of times one topic or subject has been covered in the training sessions.

Also in this section, a spreadsheet is presented to identify the team's strengths and weaknesses during the game. This information provides the coach with a better understanding of which categories or areas the team needs to improve.

Also included in this section is the team and player evaluation.
